“SEW”

Well who would have thought half a year has gone all ready. Busy busy but the cold weather is brining everyone out for a quick look around to go home and sew in the warmth.

We are going to make a few changes this next half of year. Hopefully it will suit all those busy people a bit better. Shorter classes, more variety and heaps on the weekends. A variety of new teachers will make your choices really varied. Of course all your favourites are still here. All our suppliers are introducing some great new machines which we will be demoing regularly. Don't forget we can teach you to free motion quilt and you can hire our machines to complete your quilt.

HAPPY SEWING
